RULE 20-602 PETITIONS AND LAW AND MOTION DEFINED

- (a) An application for relief based upon the Probate Code must be brought as a petition. An application for relief based upon the Code of Civil Procedure or Civil Code must be brought as law and motion.
- (b) Unrelated requests for relief may not be filed together and must be filed in separate pleadings. (Eff. January 1, 2025.)

RULE 20-603 TENTATIVE RULINGS IN PROBATE LAW AND MOTION AND DISCOVERY MATTERS

Prior to the hearing, a Probate department may issue a tentative ruling in a law and motion matter, in the sole discretion of the assigned judicial officer. Probate departments electing to issue tentative rulings in law and motion and discovery matters follow Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 3.1308(a)(2). Counsel and litigants are responsible for determining whether the department hearing their motion has made this election. If such election by the assigned judicial officer is made, the following shall apply:

- (a) Those departments issuing tentative rulings will do so no later than 3:00 p.m. on the court day preceding the scheduled hearing.
- (b) Any party who wishes to orally argue the motion may appear on the date and at the time set for hearing. No notice of intent to appear is required.
- (c) If no one appears for a hearing for which a tentative ruling has been issued and the Court has not been notified that all parties submit on the tentative ruling, the Court may take the matter off calendar or order the tentative ruling become the final ruling. The Court may also make a different ruling than that set forth in the tentative ruling at the time of the hearing.
- (d) The Court will not entertain a request for continuance unless stipulated by all parties, and no further papers may be filed once the tentative ruling has posted.
- (e) The party prevailing on the motion shall serve all parties with written notice of the Court's ruling.
- (f) Nothing in this rule requires a tentative ruling be issued on all law and motion matters.
- (g) Tentative rulings will be posted on the Court's website, www.sb-court.org, where further information can be found. Parties may notify the department that they submit to the tentative ruling at the number listed in the Court's contact information, found here phoneroster.pdf (sb-court.org).

(Eff. January 1, 2025.)

RULE 20-616 CONTINUANCES

(a) If a matter is not ready for hearing at the call of the calendar, it will be continued to a date at least four (4) weeks in the future, unless good cause is shown otherwise. Any matter continued two (2) previous times because the matter is not ready for hearing may be ordered off calendar or denied at the sole discretion of the judicial officer presiding at the hearing.

(b) If a party does not intend to proceed on any matter on the date set, that party must, no later than 4:30 p.m. on the second court day preceding the hearing date, inform the Judicial Assistant of the department in which the matter is set to be heard and the other parties. Failure of the moving party to comply with this Rule may result in the matter being taken off calendar or deemed to have been submitted for the Court's ruling.

This Rule shall not apply to matters for which a tentative ruling has been posted pursuant to Local Rule 20-603.

(Eff. January 1, 2025.)

RULE 20-1600 PROBATE COURT APPOINTED COUNSEL

In addition to the rules set forth in Rule 1400, et seq., appointed counsel in Probate matters must comply with the following:

- (a) Appointment. All court appointed counsel in probate matters must meet the following requirements:
 - 1. Counsel must meet the qualifications of California Rules of Court, rule 7.1101.
- 2. Counsel may not have been the subject of any disciplinary proceedings pending or filed during the preceding twelve (12) months.
- 3. Counsel must complete at least twelve (12) hours of MCLE during counsel's State Bar reporting period in the subjects of decedent estates, conservatorship/guardianships, or trust administration.
- 4. Counsel must attend and complete all court appointed counsel trainings offered by the San Bernardino County Superior Court and designated as mandatory for court appointed counsel.
- 5. Counsel seeking inclusion on the Probate court appointed counsel list must complete the Judicial Council form GC-010, Certification of Attorney Concerning Qualifications for Court Appointment in Conservatorship/Guardianships ("Form GC-010"), then, no later than March 31 of the following year and each subsequent year thereafter, must complete and submit a new Form GC-010. Failure to timely submit Form GC-010 may result in removal from the Probate court appointed counsel list.
- 6. Appointments are made in order from a list of approved appointed counsel. Once a matter has been assigned to the first name on the list, the next matter will then be assigned to the next person on the list in sequential order, returning to the top of the list once the last person on the list has had a matter assigned. For good cause judicial officers have discretion to appoint or reappoint specific counsel for specific matters. Appointed counsel are not guaranteed a minimum number of appointments or minimum amount of fees.
- 7. Appointments of counsel are personal and cannot be delegated to other attorneys. Only the attorney appointed by the court may render legal services to the client and appear at hearings. Judicial officers, in their sole discretion, may approve reimbursement for services performed by qualified paralegal staff supervised by appointed counsel pursuant to the Court's Appointed Services Fee Schedule.

- 8. Within forty-eight (48) hours of the court's notification of a proposed appointment, unless a shorter time is ordered by the appointing judicial officer, counsel shall notify the court whether counsel accepts or rejects the appointment. Once counsel accepts an appointment, the court will issue an order making the appointment. If a response is not received within forty-eight (48) hours of the court's notification of the proposed appointment, counsel is deemed to have waived appointment, and the court may select a new proposed counsel for appointment. Appointed counsel may not reject an appointment based upon the location where the matter is to be heard. Rejecting an appointment may result in appointed counsel being removed from the Probate court appointed counsel list.
- (b) Education and Experience Requirements for Specific Areas. In addition to the requirements set forth in California Rules of Court, rule 7.1101 et seq., and section (a), counsel appointed by the court must meet the requirements for each specific area(s) of interest selected from the following:

Counsel also must have experience in matters relating to medical treatment and bio-ethical issues within the past three years and be familiar with Probate Code section 3200 or Health and Safety Code section 121365 proceedings.
